

THE ALISON HASKELL AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN HERPETOFAUNAL CONSERVATION

2022 Nomination Announcement

About the Award: This Award is presented annually by Partners in Amphibian and Reptile Conservation (PARC), in memory of Alison Haskell (1956 – 2006), who was the first National Federal Coordinator for PARC. The award recognizes an individual who conducts work in an active PARC area (Fig. 1) and exemplifies extraordinary commitment to herpetofaunal conservation, as did Alison. Award recipients will receive $1,000 in cash and an engraved, commemorative plaque. Please visit <http://parcplace.org/about/parc-awards/the-alison-haskell-award/> to learn more about the award and past recipients.

Eligibility:

Current JNSC members (Table 1.) are not eligible to receive the Alison Haskell Award. At this time, only U.S. citizens are eligible for receiving the cash award associated with the Alison Haskell Award.

Award Criteria:

Nominations may be submitted for others, or self-submitted, and must meet one or more of the following criteria:

1. Any person who has displayed exemplary commitment to building or strengthening partnerships: (1) with stakeholders outside the individual's agency or organization, (2) with non-traditional stakeholders (i.e., stakeholders with whom an individual or agency did not previously interact), or (3) that promoted efficiencies in herpetofaunal conservation.
2. Any person who has displayed distinguished career-long contributions to partnerships and herpetofaunal conservation.
3. Special consideration will be given to any person who has exhibited tenacious effort, leadership and professionalism in a manner that is inspiring to their peers, and who has been overlooked by other means of acclaim.

PARC is committed to our Core Value of Inclusivity and Collaboration including a strategic goal of enhancing inclusion and equity within the herpetofaunal conservation community. PARC strives to provide inclusive spaces and a diverse network for participating in herpetofaunal conservation. Further, PARC's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Task Team works to bring equity and inclusion to all aspects of PARC. In addition to meeting one of more of the three criteria listed above, the Nomination must also include:

4. A statement regarding the Nominee's perspective, experience, or contributions to increase diversity and advance inclusion of under-represented groups of people in herpetofaunal conservation.

Nominees must observe and uphold the highest standards of scientific integrity and professional behavior, and must uphold PARC's Code of Ethics and Meeting Code of Conduct:

Nomination:

Please adhere to the word and page limits, or the nomination will not be considered.

1. In 100 words or less, describe how the nominee has fostered herpetofaunal conservation.
2. In 300 words or less, provide examples of how the nominee has displayed an exemplary commitment to building or strengthening partnerships.
3. In 150 words or less, describe how such partnerships significantly improved herpetofaunal conservation.
4. In 150 words or less, describe the nominee's perspective, experience, or contributions to increase diversity and advance inclusion of under-represented groups of people in herpetofaunal conservation.
5. [OPTIONAL] Using no more than 5 pages total, you may provide a letter or letters of support. This page limit is inclusive of signatures (i.e., you cannot submit a 5-page letter with 2 pages of signatures for 7 pages total). Required format: 12-point font and 1-inch margins.

Please note that nominees are evaluated on the merit of the nomination, not on the number of letters of support or the number of supporting signatures per each letter.

Submission:

Please send the completed nomination package to haskellaward@parcplace.org.

Deadline for submission: November 30, 2021

Nominations received after this date and incomplete forms will not be considered. The award winner will be notified by late-January 2022.

Selection Process:

PARC JNSC members (Table 1.) will review nominations, evaluate carefully against the criteria, and vote anonymously to determine the selection.
